DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-17 are pending.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-17, drawn to unfused pyrimidine bearing an aminopyridine group, classified in class 544, subclasses 322, 323, 324 and others, class 514, subclasses 275 and others depending upon choices of other heterocyclic ring embraced as substituents
- II. Claims 1-17 drawn to bicyclopymidine bearing an aminopyridine group, classified in class 544, subclasses 256, 257, 284 and others, class 514, subclasses 258, 259 and others depending upon choices of other heterocyclic ring embraced as substituents.
- III. Claims 1-17 drawn to 1,3,5-triazine and 1,2,4-bicyclotriazine, both bearing an aminopyridine group, classified in class 544, subclasses 194, 204, 184, and others, class 514, subclasses 241, 243 and others depending upon choices of other heterocyclic ring embraced as substituents.
- IV. Claims 1-17 drawn to bicyclopymidine and bicyclopymidine, both bearing an aminopyridine group, classified in class 544, subclasses 236, 350 and others, class 514, subclasses 248, 249 and others depending upon choices of other heterocyclic ring embraced as substituents.
- V. Claims 1-17 drawn to bicyclopymidine and pyridine, both bearing an aminopyridine group, classified in class 546, subclasses 152, 255, and others, class 514, subclasses 336, 337, 339 and others depending upon choices of other heterocyclic ring embraced as substituents.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

As per MPEP § 803, there are two criteria for a proper requirement for restriction between patentably distinct inventions:

- (A) The inventions must be independent or distinct as claimed and
- (B) There must be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is required.

Invention I, II, III, IV and V are independent and distinct from each other because they are directed to structurally dissimilar compounds that lack common core, namely, pyrimidine core versus bicyclopymidine core, versus triazine and 1,2,4-bicyclotriazine core versus bicyclopymidine and bicyclopymidine core versus pyridine and bicyclopymidine core, each of which further bearing additional heterocyclic core. Consequently, the groups have different classifications and require separate prior art searches. They can be made and used independently. Art which may render obvious or anticipate one of the groups would not necessarily do the same for the other group. For example prior art cited in the International Search Report may not be applicable to all the above groups. Each can support a patent as the compounds of each group are capable of being utilized alone not in combination with other members listed in the Markush group.

In addition, it is necessary to classify and search all the controlling cores generically embraced in Group I-V as well as heterocyclic cores. Such a search of all controlling cores would be a serious search burden.

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention such as those species of claim 11.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 1-10 and 12-17 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

In view of distinct nature of each of the invention, the restriction is set forth in writing.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
